Mary L. Allen
Nominations Chair

The East Winds District Nominating Committee has been working hard to assemble a ballot of 2023 Offices for the 2022 District Annual Meeting of United Women in Faith (October 8). No matter the name of our organization, our hearts remain focused on serving women, children and youth at home and all over God's glorious world. It's so important that we have a Leadership Team that can work together to keep all local units informed and encouraged in our mission.

Again and again we share the message of how rewarding it is to serve on the District Leadership Team. The Creative, Supportive Fellowship that has been our PURPOSE, is just magnified when women from many different units join together, get to know each other, and help each other as a Team.

Please see the Proposed Ballot in this edition of The Breeze, and prayerfully consider saying "Yes" to being a part of our leadership. You will be blessed beyond your imagination, and we will be blessed with you.

Cynthia Rossman Secretary

What a blessing it was to finally be able to gather in-person with 39 attendees at Lake Orion United Methodist Church for our Prayer and Spiritual Growth Breakfast Event on April 30th. Dawn Ames was our wonderful speaker. The topic was Human Trafficking 101: The Basics. We learned where it occurs, and who the victims are. We had time to fellowship with each other, share a meal, sing, and pray together. The Lake Orion United Women in Faith were outstanding hostesses. Thank you!

I am the Shepherd for the Davison United Women in Faith. They invited me to a “Tea for Koom Cho” on May 17th. The tea was a celebration of the five years that Koom and her husband Pastor Cho had with the Davison UMC. I was truly blessed to be included in this celebration. What a joy it was to witness the love that these ladies share. They also invited me to be their guest speaker for their United Women in Faith Sunday on August 14th. I loved worshipping with them, it was a well prepared service.

I would like to encourage all our units to get in contact with their shepherd, invite your Shepherd to your meeting or an event your church might be having. Let your Shepherd know the best way to contact you're your unit. It would be a wonderful way for you to get to know each other.

I am looking forward to our East Winds District United Women in Faith Annual meeting at Flint Calvary on October 8th. I will be leading the workshop for unit secretaries. I hope you will join us!

Blessings, Cyndy Rossman
East Winds District Secretary
